Space Pioneers ... in their own words by Loretta Hall

Description: Ninety space pioneers describe their experiences with space research and exploration from 1945 through the space shuttle program. Some of these men and women were well known as astronauts or members of Mission Control for Apollo flights to the Moon, and some were minor players in the programs—lab technicians, weather forecasters, welders, or helicopter pilots who supported rocket tests. Their stories disclose events and behind-the-scenes details available nowhere else.

REACHING FOR AIR by Gayle Lauradunn

Description: This poetry collection tells the story of a childhood spent in a landscape full of beauty, hardship, and violence. In their restless yearning and relentless motion, these poems feel completely American. Interspersed with the voice of the child is that of the adult woman, as both an extension of the child and as a counterpoint to the child's experience. This is poetic storytelling at its finest.

It All Abides in Love: Maharajji Neem Karoli Baba by Jai Ram Ransom

Description: Ram Dass introduced Maharajji Neem Karoli Baba to Western spiritual seekers of the 60s and 70s. This book is a contemporary exploration of this completely enigmatic Indian sadhu, a spiritual renunciate who had more impact on America than anyone knows. Maharajji, the Miracle of Love, raised the dead, turned water into milk or gasoline, made Himself and others invisible, cured many diseases, and never really gave any formal 'teachings'.
