Complete Santa Fe Bucket List by Pat Hodapp

Description: [This] makes me smile and reminds me of many of the reasons I love Santa Fe. Hodapp combines a librarian's obsession for getting things right with her passionate, on-going love affair with her adopted home town. This gem of a book offers unique and valuable suggestions for visitors and locals, things to see and do for all ages, in all price ranges, throughout our fascinating ancient city. Her recommendations include places to eat – one of my personal favorite ways to explore any city. Written with witty prose and honest personal insights, this useful little guide combines fun and facts in a delightful way. I highly recommend it. – Anne Hilleman

My Mother's Gentle Unbecoming - The Absentings of Alzheimer's by Dan Wetmore

Description: Collection of poems chronicling a mother's descent into Alzheimer's. Intended take-away is an appreciation that the lion's share of a life is the ripples we imbue in others; that beauty can be found in the seemingly most ugly - that in sorrow we see the shadow cast by former joys. It's hoped the whole will be seen as a portrait of love, albeit reflected in the mirror of grief.

Basic Genealogy Checklist by Henrietta Christmas & Paul Rhett

Description: Today, genealogy ranks second as a hobby only to gardening as the most searched topic online. According to recent market research, an estimated 100 million people spend over a $1,000 a year in search of their ancestors. Many of these family historians use online genealogy services to pursue their quest. This group of "pajama" genealogists is projected to grow by almost 40 percent in the next ten years. Seeking one's family history is exciting to people of all types, no matter whether they be experienced professional genealogists or just starting the adventure.
