Henrietta Schmerler and the Murder That Put Anthropology on Trial by Gil Schmerler

Description: In July, 1931, Henrietta Schmerler, a promising Columbia anthropology student, was raped and murdered on the White Mountain Apache Reservation in Arizona. The story of her tragic adventure was told primarily through the years by self-interested anthropologists and sensationalizing writers. Decades later, a niece and nephew pieced together a more accurate version through careful examination of letters and fieldnotes, painstaking archival research, and suing the FBI. This is that story.

The Fly Fisherman's Bucket List by Slim Randles

Description: Welcome to the Great Fly Fishing Race! With this book, you see, it's really a race to see how many of these hundred-plus top places to catch fish in America before you starve to death, because you're having fun instead of working. The fly fishing experts in each state steer you to their own hotspots, tell you when to fish and which flies work best. The rest is up to you. And remember, it isn't nice to drown worms! Take this trip with a true-outdoors person: Randles has packed mules in the High Sierra, competed as a roper and bulldogger in rodeo, guided hunters in Alaska and New Mexico, and drove a team in the first Iditarod Dogsled Race. Join him for some real fun!
